THERE ARE SIGNS THAT SYMBOLIZE MENTAL, SPIRITUAL, AND EMOTIONAL GROWTH. SOMETIMES THEY ARE VISIBLE TO THE WORLD AND SOMETIMES THEY ARE ONLY FELT. IF WE RECOGNIZE THEIR MESSAGES, THEY CAN GUIDE US ALONG OUR WAY.

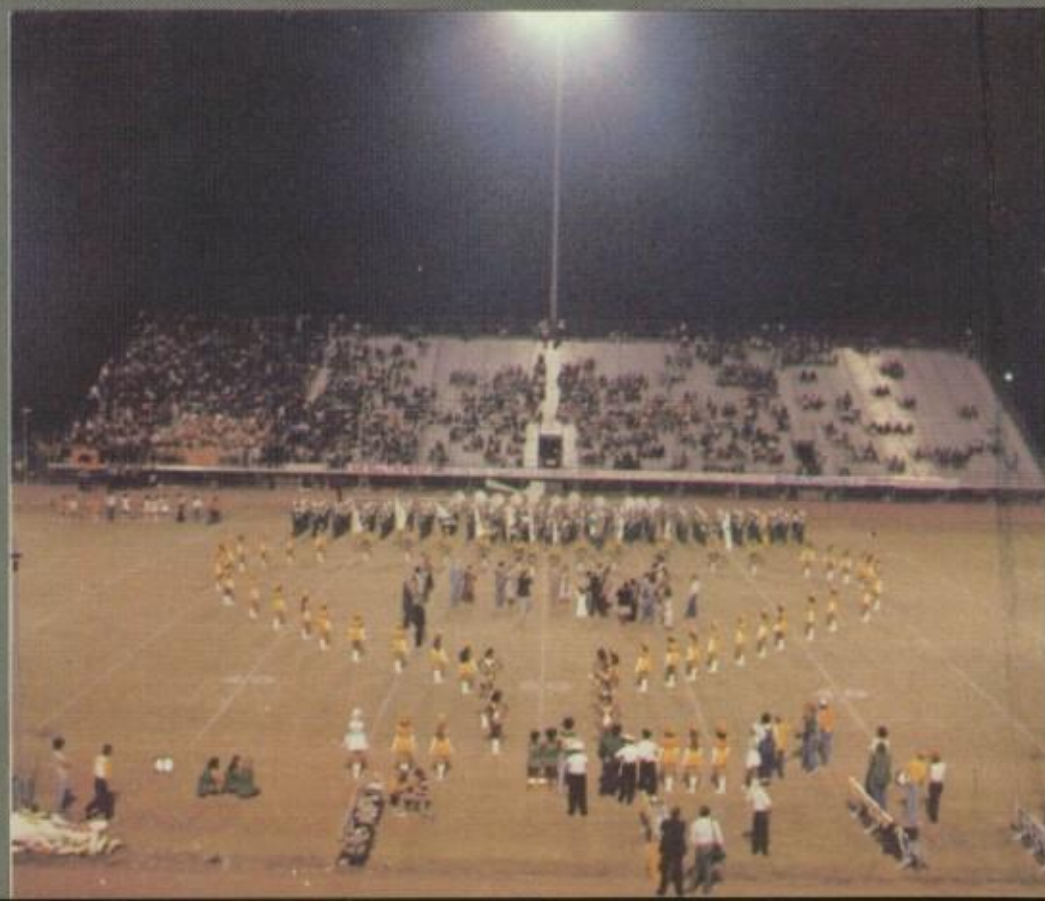

Valencia Watson Crowned Queen

As the official's whistle signaled the end of the first half, all eyes were directed toward the center of the football field where the Homecoming Court of 1978 was to be introduced. The field was a mixture of green and gold with the drill team and silks forming a heart around the court and their escorts. As the announcer said that Valencia Watson was our Homecoming Queen, a roar arose from the stands like a cloud of smoke.

HOMECOMING

PEP RALLY

After a slow start, the parade began at 10:10, wound its way around the campus, and ended at the gym steps. This marked the beginning of the pep rally. Something new greeted students — the Gold Dusters and Cheerleaders had formed a victory line. The football team walked to their place of honor through the rows of green and gold. Spirits rose as the team then paraded around the gym carrying a closed coffin which was reported to contain a dead buffalo!

Many awards were announced. Coach Thomas received the Spirt Key. Janet Ortega was named Key Club Sweetheart of the month. Kent Burch was named Anchor Club Beau of the month. Mrs. Taylor's door decoration won first in hall decorations. The Senior Class won first in hall decorations, and the Juniors won second. However, the order was reversed when Juniors won first in spirit chain and Seniors won second.

After skits, twirling, cheers, and the school song, we were dismissed to the picnic.

PICNIC

There was a wide variety of goodies, from real French donuts to Frito-pies, and every booth had food hounds lined up. One picnicker was seen devouring tacos and nachos at the Mexican food booth and then streaking to the Key Club's hamburger booth to "pig out" again. After two hours of food and frolics, everyone returned to class and turned their thoughts to the events that were to come later.

FOOTBALL GAME

Several things were evident to the spectators: the stands were crowded with students, ex-students, and supporters; It didn't rain; the homecoming court was fashionably dressed, and Valencia Watson was crowned Homecoming Queen.

DANCE

The dance this year was quite different from preceding ones, and yet, traditional in many ways. The girls were all dressed in mid-length dresses bedecked with double, triple, and even quadruple mums. These mums were decorated with everything from football helmets to cowbells. The streamers draped down over shiny satin disco dresses and tweed, vested suits. The young men came in corduroy three-piece suits, or sweater and shirt ensembles. All had a single carnation on their left shoulder. There was a special feeling that was evident in the original styles of dancing. This year was special! We had won a Homecoming Game for the first time in four years. WE BEAT FRENCH!

Michelle Petry, Julie Holcombe, Valencia Watson, Cynthia Young, and Cindy Ogle entertain during the Christmas Program.

T. Portley, J. Nelson, B. Johnson, J. Henry, D. Dalco, R. Francis, F. Phillip, T. Mason, and C. Littles clown around for the photographer at the Winter Ball.

Ofay Bell, Keith Johnson, and DeJuanna Gilbo enjoy a piñata party and nachos.

POLITICAL SIGNS ALONG THE WAY

Elections played an important part in the school year. Campaign signs appeared everywhere, even hanging from the ceiling. Pictured are Ofay Bell and Tim Guillory busily presenting their speeches while others wait anxiously for the outcome of the elections.

TWIRP WEEK

EVENTS

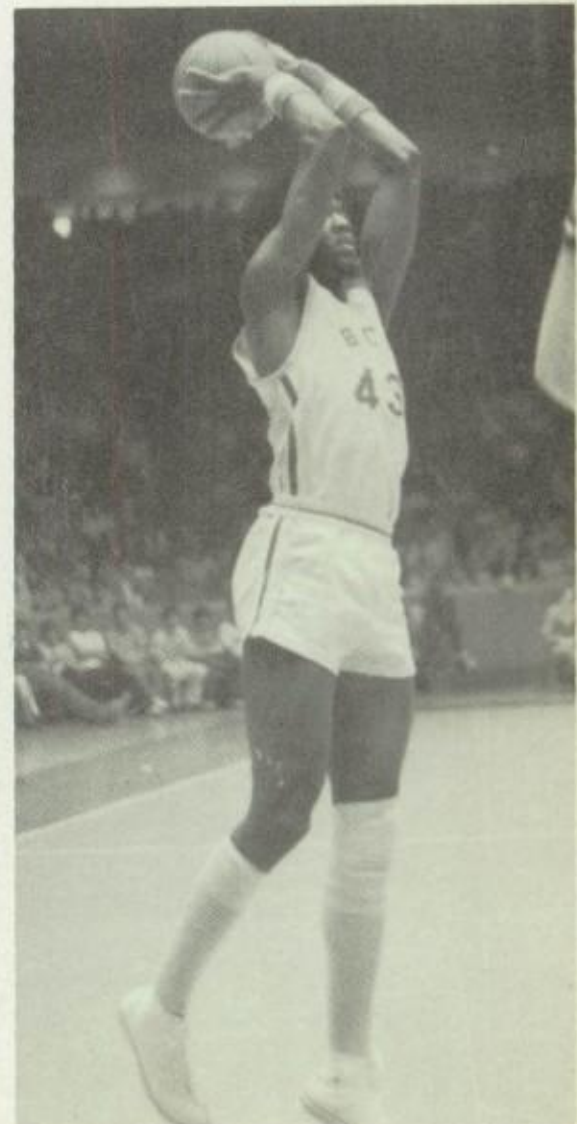

On February 16 the Twirp Dance was held in the school cafeteria. Disco music was provided by KALO. During a break, the courts were introduced and took their place at the front of the room. The Junior Court consisted of Isaac Wilridge, Roger Coleman, and Robby Beavers. Michael Jones, Greg Johnson, Kent Burch, and Kenneth Perkins represented the Senior class.

Mr. Laceky inquired, "Where is the king?"

What could be more important than claiming this crown?

Practicing, of course!

ASSEMBLIES

Choir members perform at an assembly.

In a scene from The Miracle Worker, Jeanette Hargett plays Mrs. Keller and Linda Daigle plays Annie Sullivan.

The stage band performed for assemblies.

David Baugh, Assistant U.S. Attorney, speaks at the Black History Week Assembly.

Gerald Stewart was accompanied by Delores McQueen at the Black History Week Assembly.

SPRING PICNIC

"How's that step go?"

Allen Fine and Cadillac Woolridge enjoy the spring picnic.

George Nedd wonders what to do next.

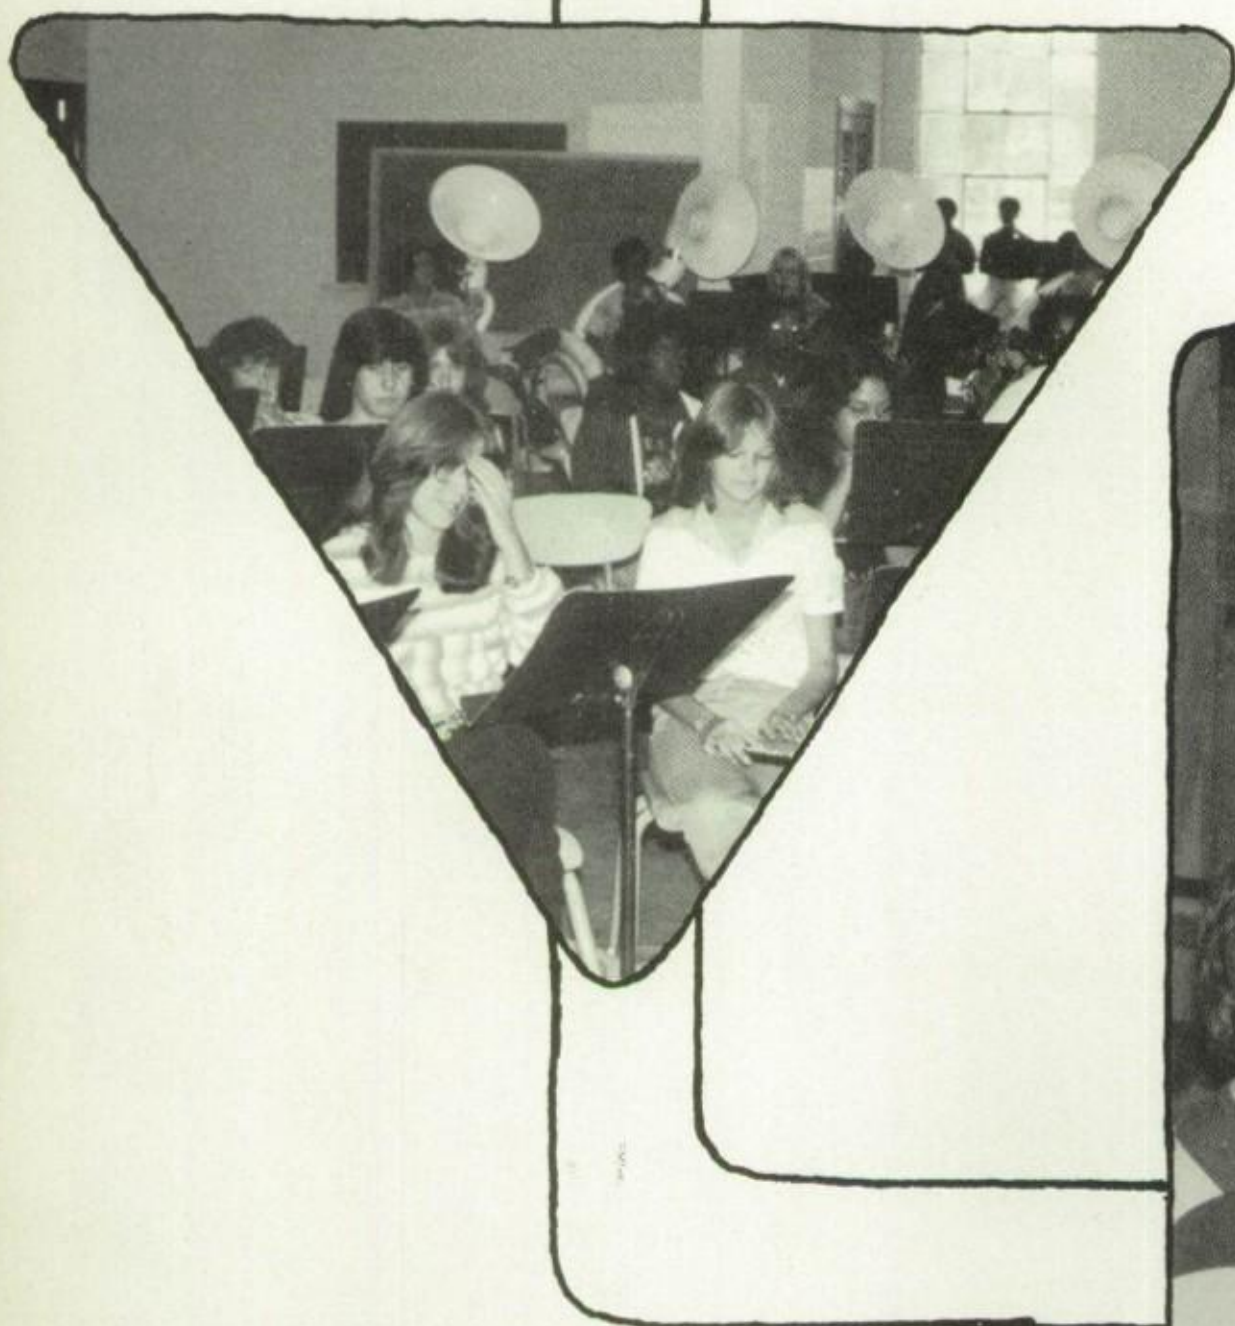

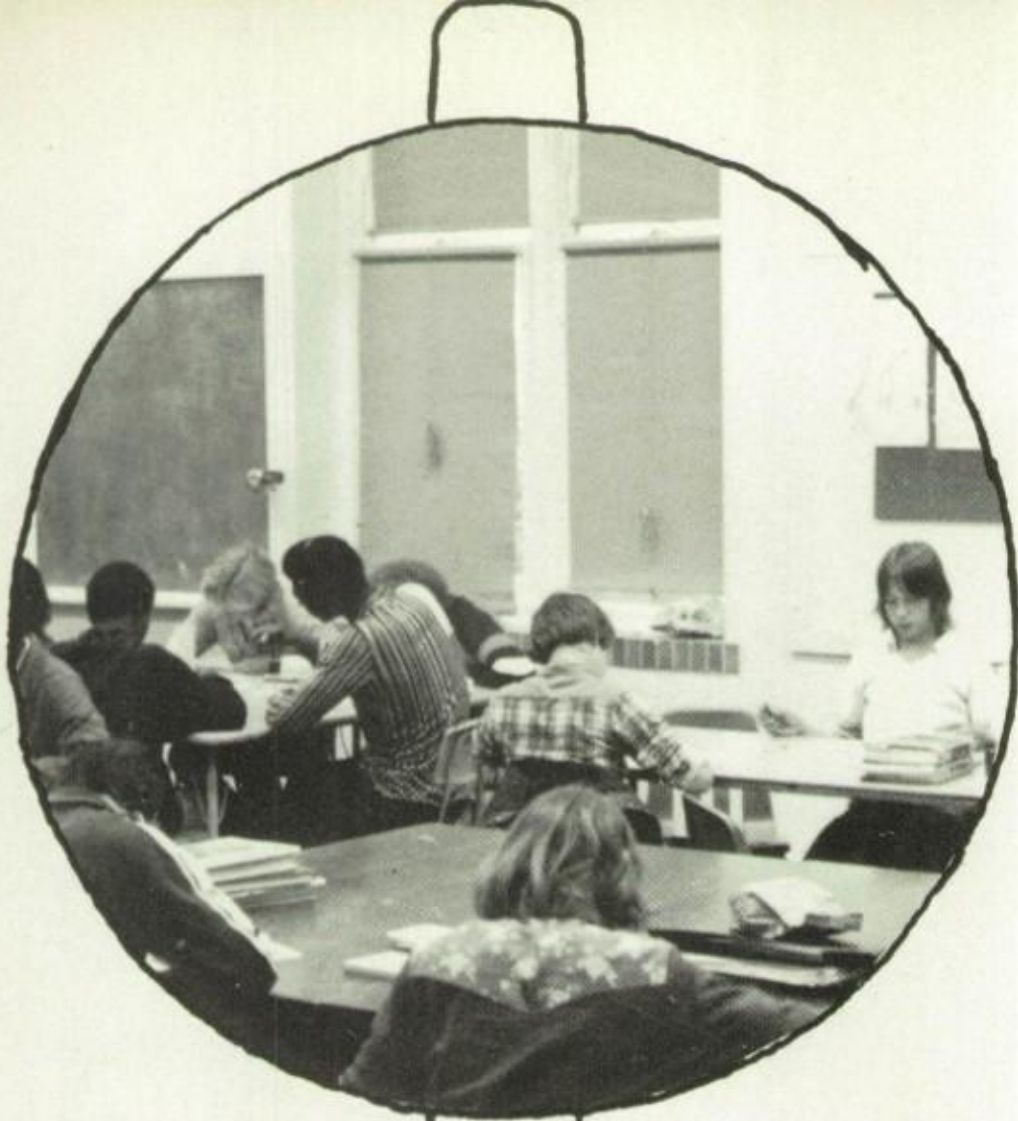

Janice Greene smiles after eating six hotdogs, twenty-five tacos, and fifteen doughnuts.

The French club sells doughnuts and French candy at picnic.

Ms. Jones enjoys eating corn-on-the-cob and dancing.

SENIOR BANQUET

As the seniors enjoyed the speaker, prophecies, and lunch, many were wondering if this really would be the last time they saw one another . . . but class reunions will come around sooner than they think!

SENIOR ASSEMBLY

It finally came — the last day of twelve years of school. Everyone seemed overly emotional — either at the thrill of becoming a graduate at last, the fear of college and strict bosses, or the sadness at the thought of missing old firends. In spite of exciting, tense moments and those slippery staircases, they made it!

SENIOR PROM

After the candle sale in the fall, the Seniors were ready for a great prom. It was held May 25th at the Setzer Center Ballroom. "Sound Express" provided music to please all. Tuxedos in every color from pink to red to traditional black, for the boys, and long dresses for the girls, were what many chose.

GRADUATION

May 31st finally arrived. We arrived at the Civic Center, mingled with friends and finally organized ourselves into an orderly line when senior homeroom teachers said the time was close at hand. Then the processional began. It seemed difficult to concentrate on marching to the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance".

When we were all seated, Kevin King gave the invocation, the choir, orchestra, and band presented us and our guests with a beautiful rendition of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic".

Then Joyce and Sam made their speeches: Not An Ending — A Beginning and What Next?

Mr. Shaw and Mr. Laceky presented the class to Dr. Rec-tor who introduced the school board members, and then, one by one, our names were called and we received the piece of paper we had worked twelve years to hold. There were cheers and handshakes as we crossed the stage and returned to our seats.

Finally, we all had received our diplomas, so we sang together, Michael Holmes gave the benediction, and we marched out, all going our separate ways.

JUNIORS

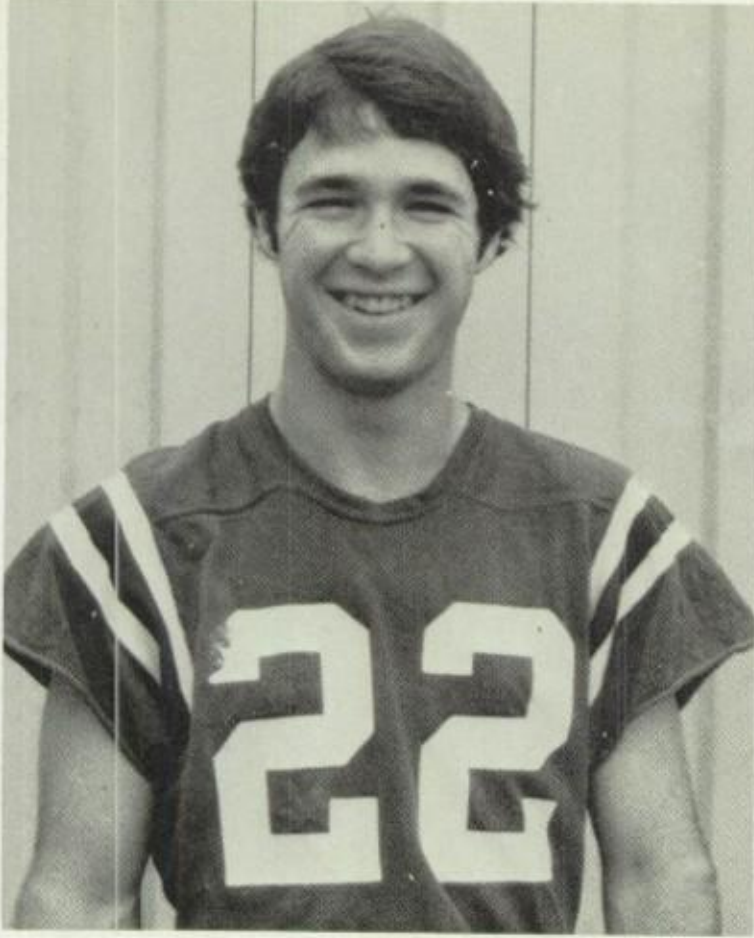

Jr. class sponsor: Miss George

At the start of the year the Juniors were back to their usual habit, makin' moola (money). Selling magazines was the project to earn bids for the upcoming Jr.-Sr. Prom in March.

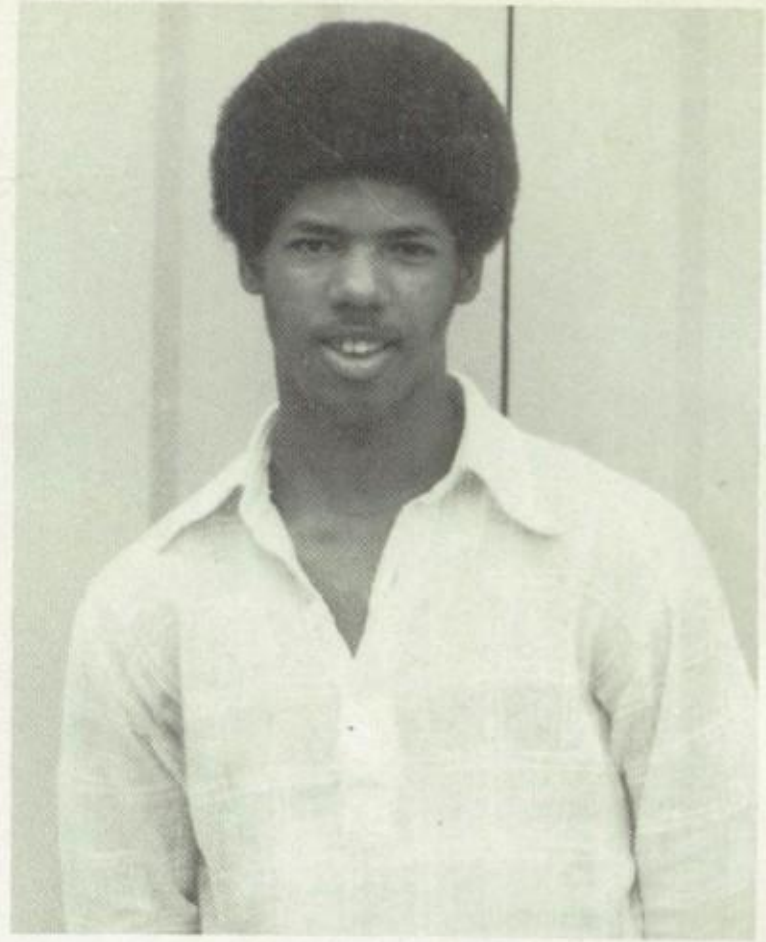

The next activity was preparing the Homecoming project. The theme was "TUT, TUT, BUFFS", which accented on Egyptian Decor such as the sarcophagus, hieroglyphics, jewels, etc. For the Homecoming picnic the Juniors served Frito pies.

The Junior-Senior Prom was considered a success. The theme was "Stairway to Heaven" in a starry dream of silver and blue.

BISD SCHOOL BOARD

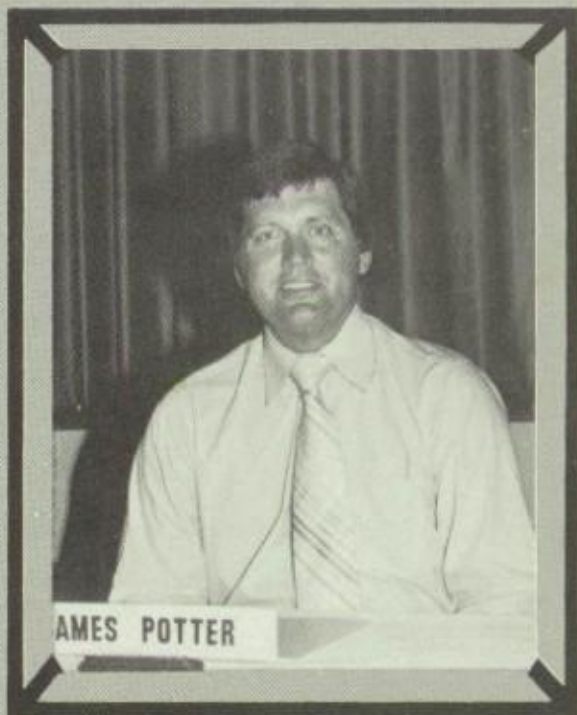

Trustees spent many hours pondering the future of Fletcher School, approving The Five Year Plan for Improving Instruction, making important decisions on expenditures and personnel matters, and approving job descriptions. Many of their decisions directly affected the quality of education at Beaumont-Charlton-Pollard High School.

Not pictured is Henry Hendrix who decided not to seek reelection after serving as a trustee for twenty-four years.

Also not pictured is Dale Elmore who served part of the year, but resigned when he left Beaumont to start a new business.

Instructional Principal

"While evaluating matters pertaining to the instruction at B-C-P, I have seen signs of achievement and progress throughout 1978-79.

Two students qualified for semi-finals in the National Merit Scholars Examination.

Also, there was an improvement in the University Interscholastic League Literary Competition. This was the first year that freshmen participated, and they were awarded five first place ribbons and two second place ribbons.

The number of accelerated and enriched classes is increasing which indicates that students desire to be challenged.

Our music department has steadily improved in performance. The choir received a first place rating in UIL competition.

At the end of the year, B-C-P's NJROTC unit was named the most outstanding unit in the Eighth Naval District which consists of thirty-three schools distributed throughout five states."

BILL LACEKY

Instructional Principal

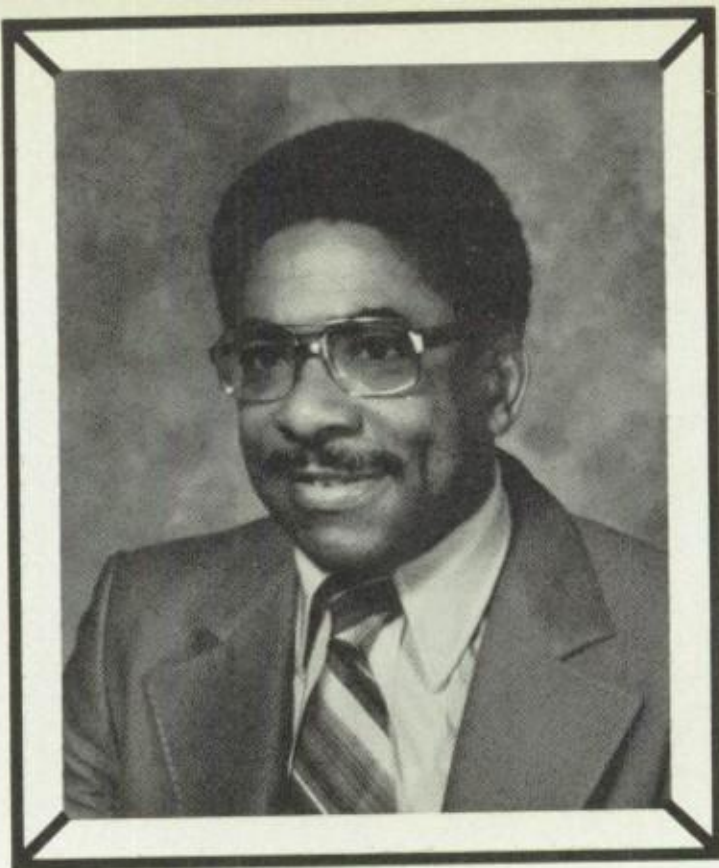

"During 1978-79 there have been many signs of progress in the management area.

In the matter of human relations, there are signs that students are consistently getting along better with each other and with teachers. The number of problems has decreased on a day to day basis.

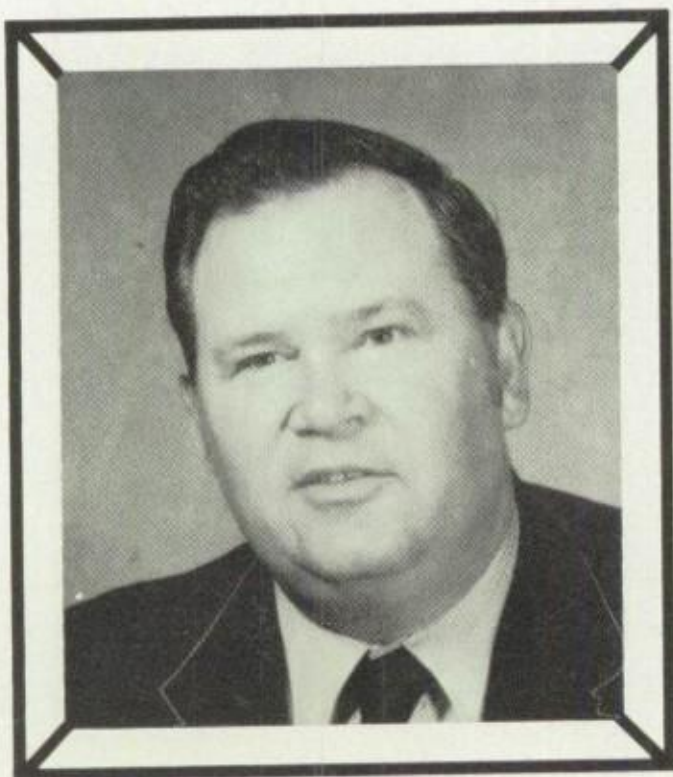

Girls competed in a variety of sports this year, and B-C-P had a varsity girls basketball team. Also, we have had winners in many sports. Individual students and many teams advanced beyond district. Even when our teams didn't win, the students were supportive.

There are visible signs that we are gaining much needed facilities which will enable our staff and students to meet learning objectives. The new agricultural shop and tennis courts are steps in this direction."

The Varsity Cagers won all their pre-district games except for one when Silsbee defeated them in the Y.M.B.L. tournament.

They were undefeated in district play, and won the 22-4A crown when they beat West Orange Stark 69-61, then went on to win the bi-district title by overcoming Forest Brook 73-57 at Rice's Autry Court. This title put the Cougars in the Region III tournament at Hofheinz Pavilion on the University of Houston campus where they beat Deer Park 59-58 and advanced to the finals. The season ended when No. 1 ranked Houston Madison defeated BCP 56-62 on February 24.

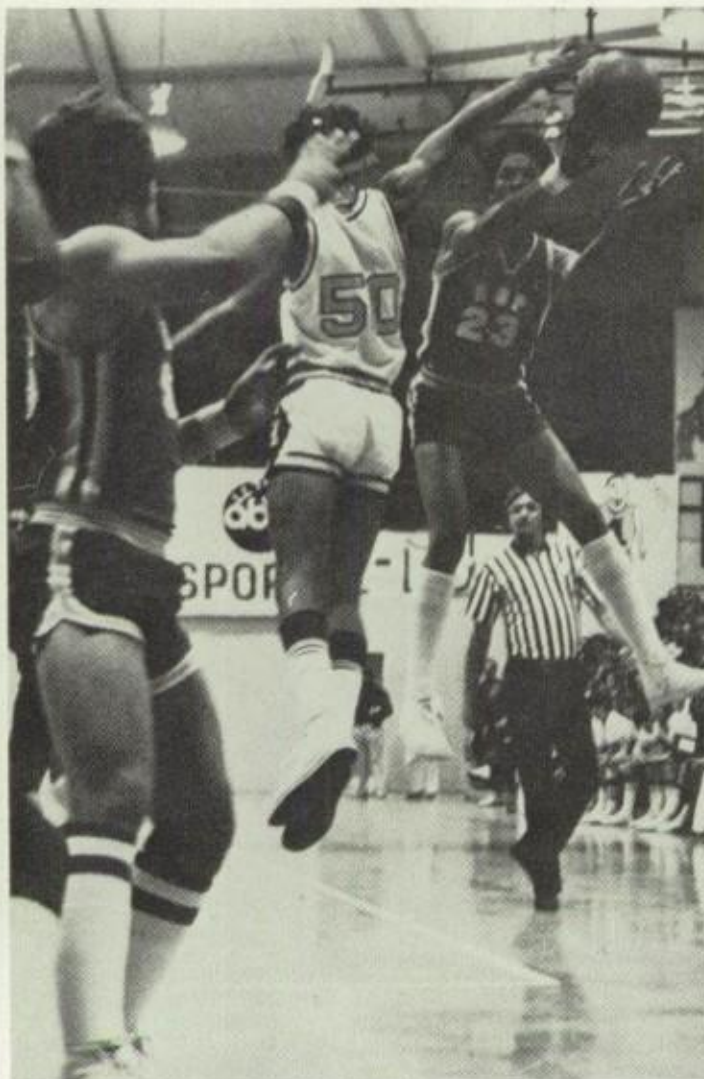

Several members of the team won individual honors. Kenneth Perkins and Michael Jones won all-district honors and were named to the Beaumont Enterprise and Journal's team. Perkins averaged 16.6 points a game; Jones averaged 12.4. Freddie Coleman, Gerald Darby, John Young, and Roger Coleman were selected by the Enterprise and Journal for honorable mention.

Beaumont-Charlton-Pollard's varsity tennis team had a rough season. Their play remained at a relatively low and steady pace throughout most of the season. They were invited to and attended tournaments in Galveston and in Clear Lake.

Toward the end of the year, a spark of life was ignited when the team did quite well in the district tournament. It just looks like it took them a while to warm up.

varsity girls' tennis

The Girls' Tennis Team had a very successful year. They entered eight tournaments and received trophies or medals for their accomplishments. The team won first place in the T.J. Tournament and second place in the District meet. O. Jones and M. Rollins won 1st place in the T.J., B.C., and S.P. tournaments. They won 2nd in Galveston, and received a medal for 3rd in District. L. Shook won 1st in B.C., and C. Russell took 4th place in District. J. Phillips and L. Lindsey reached 4th in District. The coach of the team was Margaret Bostic. Standing: Coach John Gigliotta, Dana Gafford, Vander George, Kyle Nelson, Grayland Noah, Bobby Bienvenu, "Kountze", Bruce Carter, George Nedd, Lawrence Carroll, David Debbs, Glen Brantley, Sheila Gafford (statistician).

The J.V. team started pre-season play by attending the West-Orange Stark Tournament. At this tournament, they played Orangefield's Varsity and West Orange Stark's Reserves. Other pre-season play, the Beaumont Coaches Tournament, was cancelled because of rain.

As the team began regular season play, the prospects of having a winning team did not appear to be too good. But, after settling down, the team came through with a winning season.

Bobby Bienvenu, Glen Brantley, David Debbs, Paul Schlett, Scott Dollinger did an outstanding job as did the rest of the starting nine. Thanks to Sheila Gafford, our statistician, no one had to keep the fielding and hitting records. Diana Gafford deserves special thanks for picking up the bats and for keeping the dugout clean.

Coach Gigliotta summed up the season with this thought, "We played hard, lost together, won together, and fun all the way."

The Anchor Club is a nation-wide service organization for girls which is sponsored by the Pilot Club. BCP's Anchor Club participates in community projects such as the Jerry Lewis Telethon, The Salvation Army Christmas Fund Raising Drive, the Muscular Dystrophy Dance Marathon, and Kaliedoscope. The girls also participate in many worthwhile school projects. They were responsible for the Homecoming Chili Supper, the garage sale, and for labeling BISD property at BCP.

Each girl has a secret sister and a secret brother to give surprises to. Meetings are held at least twice a month. One meeting is a program with a speaker. One program was given by a representative from Merle Norman Cosmetics and included a demonstration. The other meeting is a business meeting.

Delegates from BCP to the regional meeting at Nederland were Alicia Faggard, Linda Florey, Dee Davenport, Liz Key, Liz Curtice, Sheila Breaux, and Vicki Spitznagle.

Alicia Faggard and Lisa Menefee attended the national meeting at Valley Forge.

The Marching Band, directed by Gerald Stewart, performed during halftime at all football games. On the field, band members were directed by Drum Major Sam Roby and Assistant Drum Major Cedric Stewart. After football season the band received a first division rating at the UIL Marching Contest held at Little Cypress-Mauriceville.

Winning ensembles were Joe Bryant, Marlin Dugas, Greg Richards, and Jeff Simon — saxophone quartet; James Bares, Clark Davis, Steven Day, and David Johnson — trombone quartet; and Betsy Burton, Cindy Chesson, Lisa Gibbs, and Cindy Granato — flute quartet.

UIL Concert and Sight-Reading Contest provided band members with another chance to show their skills. The Concert Band, directed by Lindsey Bloodworth, made second division rating in both concert and sight-reading. The Symphonic Band was rated third division in concert and second division in sight reading.

Fund raising projects included selling popcorn, lightbulbs, and hosting a Maynard Ferguson Concert in the Civic Center.

(cont.) but under the direction of Mr. Lynn Hawkins and Mrs. Kit Dollinger, it has been a successful one.

The League has attended 16 tournaments, receiving 25 trophies (incl. 3 sweepstakes awards) and qualifying 6 people for the T.F.A. state tournament in Waco and 1 for U.I.L. state. As a perfect end to a great year, the league's 1st festival, held at BCP, was a triumph.
